DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1- 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Baseflug et al. (6,726,071). Baseflug discloses, in figs. 1 and 2, a carrying strap comprising an elongated strap member, a security lock 24 at one end of the strap member, a loop 26 formed at the other end of the strap member, a means 28 comprising coating material surrounding a metal cable with increased width portion, which is capable of resisting movement of the strap member. The means 28 may comprise strips of hook and loop (Velcro), see col. 4, lines 25-27.
